- ALEX MYLES -

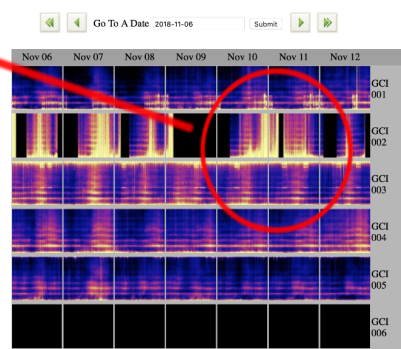

High vibrational energy has arrived. You are now distancing from certain people's timelines as your soul no longer needs painful lessons to grow - (it never did!) This is a period of peace, harmony, transformation & alignment. You've ascended at fast speed & anything or anyone that doesn't resonate on a pure, loving, authentic, kind & compassionate frequency is starting to distance. Some will fall away, others will raise their game to meet you & stay.

You are beginning to connect with people who are good for your emotional, mental & spiritual health. Soul mates are arriving in abundance & you are going to be fully supported in love, work & play. Be open to new friendships.

This energy upgrade is intense so move gently & forgive yourself when you slip - especially when the past returns to test you. You may feel triggered but you'll rapidly move through challenges & trials. You are warrior-strong.

Release all negativity from your heart & mind. Don't allow anyone to disturb your peace. Let go of the picture you've created & allow the story to unfold, without force & without trying to control the outcome. Tables have turned & the universe is guiding you. You are unstoppable, limitless & in the flow. Ask for what you want & get ready to receive. Literally speak the life you want into existence. This is the most powerful day for manifesting in ten years. Make a wish & don't be afraid to aim high - you deserve it all.
